

A new exhibition to celebrate the centenary of Brown's in the Covered Market, one of the longest-standing and best-loved eateries in the city.

Oxford's Westgate Library
19 November – 21 December 2024

Find out about Catherine Brown, the café's high-spirited and popular founder, who presided over the tea urn for forty years, and about what Brown's has meant to generations of townsfolk, students and academics alike.

Viewable during normal library opening times;
entry free.
